SPECIALIZATION

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Southeast Asian American Philanthropic Leadership: Employ AsianCrit theories and ethnographic methodology to inter-ethnic and intra-ethnic conflict within the world of philanthropy and the duality of its scarcity-rooted mindset

Southeast Asian American and BIWOC’s Lived Experiences: Apply critical race theories and phenomenological methodology to analyze the individual lived experiences of immigrant, refugee, and/or first or second-generation women in comparatively patriarchal communities

COMMUNITY VISIONS

Community Building and Infrastructure Development through Narrative Strategies:

Cultivate meaningful relationships and a mutual understanding of community through cultural and Westernized strategies on various communication mediums

Women, Youth, and Young Adults of Color Leadership Development and Empowerment:

Galvanize the current and next generation of leaders through programming, building a sense of belonging, self-identity, and social awareness to enlighten communities of long-term social change and growth opportunities
